G.O. No. 21134 of 21.8.09.

~~An~~ amending article 554. (5) U.S.R. ~~giving the benefit of sub. s. of~~ ~~U.S.R.~~ allowing Constables & Daffedars to draw mileage in all cases.

From ~~[illegible]~~ UO.

letter No. 37/1 of 5.7.09 (submitted herewith) on which the present amendment has been ~~made~~ based it will be seen that what we intended was to exclude all the Constables & Daffedars having Provincial jurisdiction from the operation of art 554 (5) as that article referred ~~to only~~ only to those Daffedars & Constables attached to any particular District. The present amendment applies only to one set of such officials & excludes other placed in similar situations viz Constables and Daffedars ~~attached~~ working in the D. C's office. These have to accompany him throughout the Province & are thus entitled to the same privilege as those attached to the Criminal Investigation Dept. Under these circumstances it is necessary that ~~the~~ sanctioned amendment now ~~shewn~~ shewn be modified & therefore beg to submit the accompanying draft letter to Govt for orders.

Mr Councillor - The proposed amendment in s 34 (5) may be approved - A separate letter from Comptroller may be dispensed with in the present case. The word "previous" being used throughout the Code, perhaps we may write a letter to consider the alteration of this kind into "Rule". When the matter is taken in hand Ed Insp is rather in favour of leaving it as it is.

I agree. But should not this come up with a letter from the Comptroller? The word 'State' should be used for 'Province'. It is incorrect at any rate for us to term this a 'Province' as may be seen by referring to any good dictionary.
